Notice

We claim there is a high possibility that the “User State Migration Tool (USMT)” and the “Files and Settings Transfer Wizard (FSTW)”, which are newly added to Windows XP, infringe our patent titled “User Environment Transfer System of Information Apparatus”.

(US patent number 6110229. See the attached copy.)

From a viewpoint of the business, we (your company and our company) had better discuss this subject.

With regards,

Jinsei Yamaguchi, Ph.D.
